

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

Animals are not allowed. Any participant arriving with an animal will be denied entry to the Forum and will not be eligible for any refund of their ticket(s), except for visually impaired individuals who may be accompanied by a guide dog.

Before completing any transaction, the client expressly acknowledges having read and unconditionally accepted the general terms and conditions of sale by clicking the "I accept the general terms and conditions of sale" button. Furthermore, the client acknowledges having legal capacity or the authorization of a qualified person to validate this commitment.

The City of Bordeaux emphasizes the importance of reading these general terms and conditions of sale in full.

The access passes listed below are strictly personal. They are sold subject to availability and valid from October 28 to 31, 2025, for the Bordeaux GSEF 2025 Forum, as indicated on the ticket. A purchased ticket grants access to the Forum venues: Palais 2 l'Atlantique and Hangar 14.

1 - USERNAME AND PASSWORD

To personalize each client's space upon their first order, an email address and password must be provided.

The email and password will be requested for each new login to the personal account area, "My Account." These credentials are strictly personal and confidential, and the client is responsible for their use. In case of loss or forgotten login information, the client may recover it via a specific link.

Passwords must contain at least 12 characters, including uppercase letters, lowercase letters, numbers, and special characters.

2 - PRICES

All prices include VAT.

For security reasons, access to Bordeaux's Palais 2 L'Atlantique and Hangar 14 will only be granted to individuals who have registered online or on-site during the Forum. Access to the venues will be restricted to badge holders.

All registrations must be accompanied by a copy of a valid ID.

4 - PAYMENT SECURITY & DATA PROTECTION

The website uses a secure system.

Data collected is used to fulfill contractual obligations and is stored as per legal retention periods. Data recipients: City of Bordeaux, Bordeaux Métropole, GEMME, the Département de la Gironde, the Région Nouvelle Aquitaine, the Chambre Régional de l'Économie Sociale et Solidaire de Nouvelle-Aquitaine and the GSEF.

In compliance with French and European data protection laws, clients have the right to access, rectify, delete, restrict, transfer, or object to their data. Requests may be sent to:

- contact.cnil@bordeaux-metropole.fr
- contact.ssi@bordeaux-metropole.fr

For unresolved data complaints, contact the French Data Protection Authority (CNIL).

5 - CANCELLATION

No ticket refunds unless the event is canceled by the organizer, in case of death, or force majeure as defined below. Refunds will only be issued to the buyer via bank transfer.

Force Majeure

As defined by Civil Code Article 1218: an unforeseeable, unavoidable event beyond control that prevents contract execution (e.g., war, pandemic, natural disaster, terrorist attack).

Cancellation by Organizer

If canceled by the organizer, tickets will be fully refunded.

For issues, contact: contact@bordeauxgsef2025.org

6 - IMAGE RIGHTS

By attending, participants grant the City of Bordeaux free worldwide rights (for the legal duration of copyright) to use their image and voice in any media related to the event (photos, live/delayed broadcasts, video/audio recordings). These rights may be transferred to third parties.
